FESSES TO HAVING TAKEN AUTOMOBILE

Jesse Snapp Held To Grand Jury By Squire William Lane at Examination Trial Held Here Wednesday Morning.

Jesse Snapp, 21 years of age, a farm hand working for Mr. William Curtis on the Calvin Lee farm in the county, confessed before Squire William Lane, of Washington, who held an examining court at the court house Wednesday morning, that he took the automobile belonging to Rev. Chapin, Presbyterian minister at Washington, on last Saturday night.

Young Snapp was arrested at Carlisle on Tuesday by Constable Goggin and returned to Maysville Tuesday night where he was lodged in the local jail.

The young man said that he took the automobile to ride to Carlisle to see his parents who live in that city, intending to bring the machine back to the minister's garage in Washington but in Carlisle he ran out of gasoline. He said it was not his intention to sell or otherwise dispose of the machine but after seeing his parents he expected to return it to the owner. The machine was taken out of the garage between 10 and 11 o'clock Saturday night, the young man stated.

After hearing the young man's confession, Squire Lane held him for grand jury investigation and fixed his bail at $300 which he was unable to give and he was returned to jail.

AGED COLORED WOMAN USES SHOTGUN; THOUGHT INSANE

"Aunt" Rose Parker, of Lewisburg on Rampage—Inquiry Into Her Mental Condition May Be Made.

Much complaint has been made recently by citizens in the Lewisburg neighborhood against the conduct of "Aunt" Rose Parker, an aged colored woman living in that village. The old woman has been shooting about her home with both pistol and shot gun until neighbors and those who are compelled to use the road by her house have become frightened and asked the protection of the courts.

It is thought that the old woman is suffering from mental trouble as she claims that persons are attempting to gas her at times and at all hours of the night she has been known to ho up prowling about on the pike with a lantern and shotgun.

A few days ago she fired a shot gun across the pike at her home directly in front of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worthington, who were driving by and on Tuesday night she was firing a shot gun at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garr Strode. The old woman was taken in custody Tuesday evening and an examination into her mental condition will probably be made Thursday before Judge Purnell.

SMALL BOY KILLED IN SAND PIT

Twelve-Year-Old Boy Killed When Sand and Ties Over Cave Playhouse Gave Way—Others
Narrowly Escape.

William Poor, twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Poor, of East Front street, died of suffocation at about noon Wednesday when he was buried beneath several feet of sand and old railroad ties in the sand pit near the L. & N. round house.

The boy with three other small boys, his brother, August Poor, Henry Day and Eugene Mitchell, was digging in a cave play-house they had been building for some time when the sand gave way burying him. Old ties had been used all through the sand pit as roadways and in several places in the pit small boys have dug out under these ties and made play houses.

The boy who was killed was several feet back into the cave digging while the other three boys were at the entrance when the sand slipped and collapsed the play house. Eugene Mitchell, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell, of East Second street, was the only one of the other three boys injured. He was struck on the head by one of the ties and knocked down. A nail in the end of the tie pierced his head and made a rather ugly wound although he is not seriously injured.

The three small boys began at once to dig their buried companion from the sand and old ties. They say that they spent probably five minutes and seeing that they would be unable to rescue the boy, all three ran to the L. & N. round house where they found Mr. Charles Lavin, L. & N. section foreman, and informed him of their playmate's plight. Mr. Lavin and his men and Mr. Charles Wright who was passing at that time, rushed to where the boy was buried and began to dig him out. They were probably fifteen minutes digging down to the boy's body. He was dead when they lifted him out of the sand.

Coroner T. F. Higgins was called and made an investigation. He and his jury heard the evidence of Messrs. Lavin and Bright and two of the boys who were with the lad and the story was told them as recited herein.

Dr. A. R. Quigley examined the body and in his testimony before the Coroner's jury, stated that it was his opinion that the boy had met his death by suffocation rather than from external injuries. While the body was bruised, there were no bones broken.

The Coroner's jury returned this verdict: "We, the jury, find the body before us to be that of William Poor, about 12 years of age, and that he came to his death accidentally by suffocation by being covered up by sand and ties in the sand pit near the L. & N. round house in Mason county, Kentucky."

DIDN'T OVERSTATE LIQUOR SITUATION, SAYS PORTER

Retiring Prohibition Inspector Reiterates Statement Made in Regard To Kentucky-Ohio Whisky Ring.

"I think I have not overstated the case," said former Chief Prohibition Inspector J. Sherman Porter Monday, concerning the statement made by former Internal Revenue Collector Elwood Hamilton in Louisville, in regard to Mr. Porter's assertion in regard to the leadership of the whisky ring made in Cincinnati last Saturday.

"In the first place, I did not say anything about a whisky ring of nation-wide size. I didn't know anything about that, but what I said referred to the evidence of a whisky ring in Ohio and Kentucky, the existence of which ample evidence was produced by Federal prohibition agents in the hearings at Maysville and Covington."

"The records will show whether robberies of distilleries and warehouses have been faked or not, and what I said about fraudulent whisky prescriptions was based upon an examination of the record of these fraudulent prescriptions. For instance, one Louisville physician issued $3,000 emergency prescriptions within a few months. I do not think Mr. Hamilton has had opportunity to examine these records, while I have been engaged in that work constantly since I took the oath of office. My knowledge of that situation is very accurate because I have seen and handled the prescription blanks. Based on that knowledge I desire to repeat that I believe that nine out of every ten whisky prescriptions are frauds and fakes, and known to be so by both patient and physician, and the entire fraud and fake of these prescriptions ought to be stopped."

JUDGE LANDIS BARS WHITE SOX PLAYERS.

Chicago, August 3.—The seven former members of the White Sox baseball club, acquitted by a jury of throwing the 1919 World Series were banned today from ever playing professional league baseball again.

Judge K. M. Landis, high commissioner of baseball, and Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox club, sealed the baseball fate of the "Black Sox." Comiskey said the seven men never would play on his team again.

Judge Landis issued a statement of "rules" covering the case in which he barred them from reinstatement.

WHITE SOX CLEARED
BY JURY AFTER ONLY
BRIEF DELIBERATION

Ball Players Charged With "Throwing" World Series to Cincinnati Reds Are Found "Not Guilty."

A Chicago dispatch says: The seven former Chicago White Sox baseball players and two others on trial for alleged conspiracy to defraud the public through throwing the 1919 world series games Tuesday night were found NOT guilty by the jury. The jury took only one ballot.

The verdict was reached after two hours and forty-seven minutes of deliberation but was not returned until forty minutes later, Judge Hugo M. Friend being out of court when the decision was reached.

The defendants were: Buck Weaver, third baseman; Oscar Felsch, outfielder; Charles Risberg, shortstop; Arnold Gandil, first baseman; Claude Williams and Eddie Cicotte, pitchers; Joe Jackson, outfielder, all former White Sox players, and S. Carl Zerk, of St. Louis, and David Zeiler, of Des Moines. Announcement of the verdict was greeted by cheers from the several hundred persons who remained in the court for the final decision, and shouts of "Hoorsy for the Clean Sox!" Judge Friend congratulated the jury, saying he thought it a just verdict. Eddie Cicotte was the first of the defendants to reach the jurors. He grabbed William Barrett by both hands, shouting his thanks. Joe Jackson, Claude Williams and the others were close behind, and the jurors lifted them upon their shoulders while flashlight photographs were taken.

Bailiffs vainly pounded for order and finally noticing Judge Friend's smiles, joined in the whistling and cheering. Hats sailed high in the air, papers were thrown around and the courtroom was the scene of the wildest confusion in any recent Cook county criminal case.

OF NORTHWEST TONIGHT

Pastime Management Offers One of James Oliver Curwood's Latest Productions Today.

"The Courage of Marge O'Doone," which will be shown at the Pastime theater Wednesday is a vigorous fighting story of primitive men and stout-hearted, beautiful women, fierce huskies and malomutes, red-blooded adventures and rare romance, surprise and suspense, mystery and thrills staged in the vast white arena of the frozen North. It has all the zip and zest, the drama and color in its score of high lights that makes it just what it is—a prize special photoplay production. It is a classic of the North—a masterpiece of dramatic writing made into a masterpiece of a photoplay.

It is a gem of the genius of James Oliver Curwood. A born thriller, it travels swiftly and breathlessly along, slued with mashing incident that keeps the suspense and anticipation on edge—makes you guess and guess wrong until the topping and unexpected climax smites you. It never lags for an instant. One literary critic has proclaimed it a story ready made for the motion picture screen; another has called it hard to beat and declared it the best story that James Oliver Curwood has ever written.

TWO MORE 'SHINERS CAPTURED IN LEWIS COUNTY TUESDAY

Gaskins and Beckett Arrested on Road in Lewis County.—Were on Their Way to Oklahoma The Men Claim.

Deputy Sheriff C. M. Devore, of Mason county, and Deputy Sheriff McGill of Lewis county, at about 6 o'clock Tuesday evening arrested Thomas Gaskins and Russell Beckett, said to be the ring leaders in the moonshine deal uncovered in the county last week. The fugitives were walking along the road and had just entered the village of "Valley," Lewis county, when the officer ran upon them.

Acting on a tip that the two men were in hiding at the home of a relative in Lewis county, local officers went into the Burtonville district Tuesday morning. At about noon they drove up in front of a residence and inquired for the home of the Burtonville constable. They learned afterward that both Gaskins and Beckett were in this house and recognized the local officers. The officers returned to Burtonville and Gaskins and Beckett struck out afoot for Vanceburg. Learning that the men had been seen on the road to Vanceburg, Deputy Sheriff Devore and Deputy Sheriff McGill, who had joined him, hired another automobile and struck out behind the men.

As the men did not recognize the old Ford in which the officers were riding, expecting to see them in the large car they were in during the morning, and as Mr. Devore kept himself hid in the back seat, the officers were enabled to run right up to Gaskins and Beckett, who were walking along the road. They were placed under arrest and lodged in the local jail. They will be given a hearing before Squire Fred W. Bauer Thursday afternoon.

Gaskins and Beckett Wednesday morning said that after seeing that the local officers were pursuing them, they had decided to make their way to Vanceburg and there establish a train for Cincinnati where they expected to take a train for Oklahoma, the former home of Gaskins. Their automobile, which was found hidden in a clump of bushes in Lewis county, was placed in charge of Gaskins' wife.

SEED PLOT WILL INSURE HIGH-YIELDING POTATOES.

Experiences of Kentucky potato growers together with experimental results indicate that the best means of producing and maintaining a high-yielding strain of potatoes is to grow a seed plot from year to year to furnish the foundation for succeeding crops, according to A. J. Olney, potato specialist from the College of Agriculture. During the latter part of July and the first part of August has been found to be the best period in which to plant this plot for next year's seed, according to the specialist. Irish Cobbler and Early Ohio are perhaps the best early varieties for Kentucky while Bull Moose, Rural Russett, Carmax No. 3 and Green Mountain have been found to be the best late varieties. The growing of the seed plot is the more important since experience has shown that it is seldom practical to hold tubers from the first crop potatoes for seed.

Merely planting a seed plot will not insure high-yielding strains of potatoes alone. Good seed which has been treated with corrosive sublimate and properly cut together with proper cultivation and spraying are also necessary for the success of the project.

Care of the seed plot is outlined as follows by Mr. Olney:

"As soon as the potatoes are well above ground all plants should be re-tubed. During the latter part of July signs of the disease known as mosaic or curly dwarf. This disease causes young plants to appear dwarfed and the leaves to curl downward and be much twisted. They also have an unhealthful yellow and green color. The disease causes the plants which it attacks to produce small, worthless tubers and is the principal cause of varieties "running out." The plants should be gone over again about twice before flowering in order to remove all diseased ones. At flowering time all plants should be removed which show a different flower color from that of the variety as these are mixtures. Especial care also should be taken to make an application of nicotine sulphate at the earliest appearance of aphids or leaf hoppers as these are difficult to control when they have become established.

"After the last undesirable plants have been removed all plants which appear especially healthy and vigorous should be marked. This should be done before danger of frost. Soon after the vines have been killed the marked hills may be dug. These will furnish seed stock for the seed plot to be planted the following July or August. The remainder of the crop from the seed plot should be saved for seed for the early field crop the following spring."

STREAM OF WHEAT TO AID EUROPEANS.

Galveston Sends Most of It Through Her Great Southern Port.

Galveston, Texas. — The long continued breakdown of agricultural production in Russia largely accounts for the golden stream of middle western wheat that is flowing through this port to Europe at the rate of several million bushels monthly, according to shipping men and grain exporters here.

Italy, Germany, Greece and other countries which formerly depended upon the cereals of the Ukraine now are declared to be placing virtually all their grain orders in the middle western United States.

Wheat is converging upon this island from nearly every grain-growing state. As many as 1,000 carloads of grain have crossed the causeway within a period of twenty-four hours, according to local railway officials.

Italy, with 3,154,266 bushels, was the middle west's best customer in May. Great Britain came next, taking a total of 2,959,379 bushels, while Germany was third with 1,133,665 bushels. France, which is rapidly getting to the point where she can feed herself, took only 205,333 bushels and Belgium 190,450 bushels. Holland and Spain imported 104,000 and 98,400 bushels, respectively.

In May Galveston led all ports of the United States in grain exports, New Orleans was second with a total of 5,082,839 bushels, Philadelphia third with 2,206,795, and New York fourth with 1,941,000, according to figures of the Galveston cotton exchange and the board of trade.

Joseph Kaufman, a student of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, is able to sing in three voices at one time, sounding as three men side by side singing in unison. Only one similar case has ever been known in the United States. Kaufman has been placed in a Minneapolis school of music to prepare for a career in vaudeville.

New York Letter

New York. — Greenwich Village, that art-nourished stormy petrel of New York neighborhoods is picking up its brief cases and its palettes and its cigarette cases and its declarations of independence and is moving on to Paris. The exodus started this spring and it's been growing bigger. According to those who are already over there, a regular colony of former Greenwich Villagers is permanently established there. The interference of reformers, the commercialization of the village, the rise in rents and the persistent curiosity of the "horde" from up town and out of town has bored them to death, they declare. The artists led the procession, followed by their models; then the writers and the adventurers followed. Those who are not regretting the emigration say that Greenwich Village may in consequence be reclaimed for a while by the real artists who cannot afford to pay $150 a month for a garret studio.

—NY—

Men may be unreasonable but at least one can deceive them. That is the grain of comfort to the bobbed haired girls in New York who have been warned that they can't get jobs if they are minus what is considered the proper feminine coils of hair. A hairdressing shop in one business district of the city has displayed the following sign:

"WIGS TO GET JOBS WITH."

"We've already had a good many young women come in," said the proprietor. "They said they were out of jobs and couldn't get them because of their short hair. So they rented a wig for a few weeks. They say employers don't mind if they come in with bobbed heads after they've shown that they really are worth something. The prejudice seems to apply almost entirely to new girls."

—NY—

Can an actress come back? Well, listen to this: Kate Mayhew, who was the original Miss in the play of that time, and who appeared in principal roles with Errol Flynn, Lotta, Maggie Mitchell, the older Hackett, and James O'Neill, has been engaged for "The Temperamentals," the new comedy by Harry Wagstaff Gribble, to be produced next month.

—NY—

The cleverness of a political speaker doesn't all show in his speaking. Two men alighted near Broadway and Thirty-Eighth street the other day and began diligently searching near the curb. They said nothing to each other, but searched so ardently that passersby wanted to help. "Whaddya lookin' fer, gents," one boy demanded. The men continued their quest without replying. Soon the crowd had swelled rapidly. Then when it threatened to interfere with the traffic, one of the searchers mounted a box near the curb and began brightly: "Ladies and gentlemen, I know that you are all deeply concerned with the approaching elections—"

Dis Alexandra Flowerton break her engagement to Lieutenant Kloor because her sister, Consuela, of the Ziegfeld Follies fell in love with him when he returned from the wilds of Canada last winter? Authorities are saying "Maybe." It was given out a few days ago by the family that the engagement was off; that a good friendship had been mistaken for love because of those days when no one knew whether the navy aeronauts would return or not; that it was romance artificially stimulated by danger. Some others who are pretty close to Miss Flowerton said that it was simply that they had decided it was impracticable to try to live on a navy lieutenant's salary. Now comes the other Miss Flowerton and says that as for her a navy lieutenant's salary is quite all right and that she herself is considering proving it. She doesn't say it is Lieutenant Kloor she has in mind, but her friends do say so; and that such is the real secret of it all.

LUCY JEANNE PRICE.

LUCAS DISCOUNTS THEORY OF BRIBERY

Revenue Collector Believes Most of the Warehouse Guards in Kentucky Are Strictly Honest.

"No evidence has been found that Kentucky warehouse guards have been bribed by leaders of a whisky ring with headquarters in Covington and Cincinnati since my installation as Collector of Internal Revenue," Robert H. Lucas said Monday.

The statement was made in reply to an interview given out by J. Sherman Porter, Lexington, retiring State Chief Federal Prohibition Inspector.

Mr. Lucas said he agreed with Elwood Hamilton, his predecessor, that guards who were bribed were the exception rather than the rule.

No characterized methods designed to evade the prohibition laws as the "greatest conspiracies ever known to the world," because they involved more persons and netted more money than evasions of any other law.

He expressed the opinion that the "shoot to kill order" issued to all the guards on duty at distilleries, together with an order which is being sought to prevent the shipping of whisky by trucks, thus exposing it to "robbers," would stop some of the whisky frauds.

THE U. S. NOBBY TREAD

Where the going is specially heavy with snow, mud or sand, in hilly country where maximum traction on the road is a factor, no other tire tread yet devised is quite so effective, or so wholly approved by motoring opinion, as the U. S. Nobby Tread.

Its very simplicity—three rows of diagonal knobs, gripping the road—is the result of all the years of U. S. Rubber experience with every type of road the world over.

If every one listened to experience, how much they'd save

STOP and talk to the next man you see with U. S. Tires on his car. Ask him why.

Most likely you'll hear an interesting story about his tire experiments—before the answer was found. Money wasted. Promises unkept. Trouble on the road—humorous to every one except the man who went through it.

Finally U. S. Tires. And U. S. Tires ever since.

Perhaps it's the experience of U. S. Tire buyers that makes them more emphatic in their preference than ever this year.

When these men have tried most everything by the way of "staggering bargains," "hurrah discounts," "discounted lines at less" and so forth they know what not to get.

They want a fresh, live tire. With a good reputation. That's everything it says it is. With the people behind it who back it up.

There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Your local U. S. Dealer is drawing upon them continually to keep his stocks sized up, complete—to give you service. Whenever he gets one or a hundred tires from a U. S. Factory Branch, they are newly made this season's tires.

Sold to you at a net price. Full values. Square-dealing. A reputable maker. A reputable dealer. The whole transaction as befits the leadership of the oldest and largest rubber organization in the world.

"Stop and talk to the next man you see with U. S. Tires on his car."

SUNDAY SCHOOL PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED AT CAMP

Large Crowds Hear Evangelist Despite Hard Rain—Five Hundred Campers On Grounds.

(By J. H. RICHARDSON.)

Ruggles Campgrounds, August 2.—The camp is being treated to a fine rain this evening which will prove a great blessing even though the fierce looking storm clouds no doubt kept many from the evening service. At that the crowd was large. With nearly five hundred campers we can have a big congregation without any from the outside. The services of the day have been marked with great interest. At 6:30 we were started on the day with a fine prayer meeting under the leadership of Rev. Neil H. Young, of Paintlick. At 10:30 Dr. Fort gave us a regular institute message on the work and problems of the Sunday school. Opportunity was given for suggestions and comments from the congregation. No one could attend such a service without feeling deeply the great need of the Sunday school, for real consecrated teachers, and for parents who are willing to consecrate their children to the church from babyhood. It was brought out very clearly that the time to start bringing the children to church is in childhood. Many excellent plans for the cooperation, or rather the co-ordination of the Sunday school and preaching services. The chief emphasis must always be placed on the preaching of the Word. Dr. Fort is surely an expert at such work. He is full of plans and suggestions, and ever ready in every service or meeting to attend to the needs of the church.

The Courage of Marge O'Doone

By JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD. All-star cast includes Pauline Starke, Niles Welch, George Stanley, Jack Curtis, Billie Bennett, James O'Neill, Tara, the grizzly bear, Barea, the outlaw dog. JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD'S BEST NOVEL OF THE GREAT CANADIAN NORTHWEST. A SPECTACULAR FEATURE. DID YOU EVER SEE TWO GRIZZLY BEARS FIGHT TO DEATH? This is one of the many sensational scenes in this picture. Can a wolf dog and a grizzly bear be friends? Why did Marge O'Doone select a grizzly bear as a pet? Can a wolf be tamed? See two powerful men in a deadly fight. One had brute strength, the other science. It is the old story of David and Goliath. David Rains buried himself in the snow and wilderness of the great Canadian northwest. A grizzly bear and a wolf were the pets of Marge O'Doone and David Rains and when the time came the animals saved their lives. SEVEN BIG REELS. A THRILLING STORY OF THE GREAT NORTHWEST.

Rev. W. S. Peters of our Third Street M. E. church, delivered the address to the young people. He was heard by the largest afternoon crowd of the campmeeting with the exception of Sunday.

Another great service this evening. Dr. Birney brought a touching message from the subject "The Tragedy of the Empty House." The evangelist is holding up well under the strain of these services and seems to get better at each. Friends are asked to remember the great subjects he has for each evening reaching the climax with the two Sunday sermons.

An adjourned session of the District Conference of the Ashland District is being held here during the hours between services. It was thought Ruggles campgrounds would be an ideal place for such a conference as most of the preachers of the district are present.

Preachers to arrive during the day were: Revs. F. W. Harrop, of Somerset, W. E. Foley and F. W. Points, of Vanceburg, J. D. Haggard, of Catlettsburg, and local preachers F. H. Dowdy of Russell, and Wirtz Riley, of Chincilly, Kentucky.

Rev. G. M. Ryder, dean of Union College, Barboursville, arrived this afternoon to represent the college before the district conference. Dr. Ryder will also address the young peoples' meeting tomorrow afternoon.

The census of the camp was taken this morning—two days earlier than usual—in order to get some necessary information before the Association meets and for the good of the workers conference. The tabulation will be made tomorrow and the result given to the press in the day's report.

Miss Margaret Hitt, of Maysville, arrived today and is a guest in the Simmons cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Snead and boys, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Steele and son, William Duke, visited the camp today. So pleased were they that they contemplate camping here in the future.

Mrs. Foley, of Missouri, mother of Rev. W. B. Foley, of Vanceburg, arrived with her son this afternoon to spend several days in camp.

Mr. Richard Soward of near Maysville is a late addition to the big company of young men in the camp.

Mr. John Worthington, of Murphysville, Kentucky, young student for the ministry, is here for a few days of enjoyment of the campmeeting and to attend the district conference.

WOMEN MEN ADMIRE.

Men admire a pretty face, a good figure, but most of all the happy, healthy contented woman, as beauty fades and the figure will change. Women who are troubled with headaches, backache, those dreadful dragging sensations, and nervous irritability cannot hope to be popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible. The cause of these troubles, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is a natural restorative for such conditions, and dispels effectually all those distressing symptoms.

FLEMING BOY DIES OF LOCK JAW.

The Fleming Gazette says: Dr. C. R. Garr reported Ben Ishmeal, 19, in a critical condition Friday suffering from lock jaw. Some time ago the young man fell from a horse and the animal stepped on his foot injuring it. Apparently the wound healed, but later tetanus developed. Dr. Garr being called in consultation with other physicians Thursday. Ishmeal lives in the West part of the county. He died Saturday.

MASTER BOOTLEGGER

CANNOT BE REACHED.

"The master mind can not be reached," United States District Attorney Thomas D. Slattery, of Covington, Ky., said Wednesday. "He sits in his magnificent office or upon the veranda of his beautiful home and merely nods his orders to those under his command."

Attorney Slattery was discussing the condition in connection with the alleged bootleggers' ring, of which Cincinnati is reported to be the center.

EVER HAVE IT?

If You Have, the Statement of This Maysville Citizen Will Interest You.

Ever have a "low-down" pain in the back? In the "small" right over the hips? That's the home of backache. If it's caused by weak kidneys. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Maysville people testify to their worth. Read a case of it: Mrs. R. L. Mattingly, 207 West Second street, Maysville, says: "I was in a bad condition with my back and kidneys. I couldn't get my proper rest at night owing to the dull misery in my back. I was feeling so miserable I often had to let my housework go undone. I was dizzy by spells and also suffered from rheumatic pains. I have been so bad that I couldn't walk without pushing a chair in front of me and my lower limbs were very painful. My kidneys were in a bad condition owing to their irregular action. My mother had used Doan's Kidney Pills successfully and that led me to send to Wood & Son's Drug Store and get a couple boxes. After using them I was all right. I have felt well since using Doan's and recommend them gladly." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mattingly had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
